PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

FUNDING AGENCIES

Funding programs are awarded by two types of funding agencies:

• Government
  • Federal
  • State
  • Municipal

• Private
  • Foundations/Not-for-Profits
  • Industry
  • Commodity Groups
PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

TYPE OF PROPOSALS

• Agency-published solicitations
  • Proposals submitted in response to a specific call issued by the agency
  • Request for Application (RFA)/Request for Proposal (RFP)
  • Usually a specific topic
  • Usually a specific deadline

• Unsolicited proposals
  • Proposal submitted to the agency that has not issued a specific solicitation but is believed by the investigator to have an interest in the subject
  • For the purpose of developing a partnership or obtaining a contract
  • Usually starts with a letter of inquiry
  • Make preliminary contact with agency personnel
PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

READING THE RFA/RFP OR PROPOSAL GUIDELINES

Guidelines usually tell you about:
• Program description, funding goals and priorities
• Eligibility information
• Submission deadlines
• Proposal format
• Budget
• Evaluation process and criteria
• Program officers’ contact information

Make sure your interests align with agency’s interests
PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

COMPONENTS OF A PROPOSAL

- Title
- Project Summary/Abstract
- Project Description/Narrative
  - Problem Statement
  - Goal and Objectives
  - Activities, Outcomes, and Timeline
  - Key Personnel and Facilities
  - Evaluation Plan
- Dissemination Plan
- Sustainability Plan
- References
- Budget
- Resume/Biographical Sketch/Other Documents

TITLES

- Titles are the reviewers’ first introduction to the proposal.
- The title should be clear, accurate, and concise.
- Sometimes the title determines who reviews the proposal.
PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

PROJECT SUMMARY/ABSTRACT

- Most important component of the proposal.
- Is usually limited to 150-250 words.
- Should be understood by anyone without prior knowledge of the topic.
- Must provide the following:
  - the problem/need
  - objectives and planned activities
  - anticipated outcomes
- Define acronyms as much as possible.
- Do not cut and paste language from the narrative.
- Prepare the abstract only after completing the proposal.
PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

PROJECT DESCRIPTION/NARRATIVE

• Problem Statement
  • Rationale for the project and the request.
  • Define the problem. Give evidence of the problem by providing data or showing the gaps. Cite need assessment reports, if applicable.
  • Explain who are the targeted audience and why solving the problem is important to the community, the organization supporting the activity, and to the funder.
  • Indicate whether the program has been implemented by Cooperative Extension in other states and what the gaps/issues they encountered.
PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

PROJECT DESCRIPTION/NARRATIVE

• Goal and Objectives
  • Goals define the overall purpose of the program. Objectives can be the measurable changes expected as a result of the project. Objectives should be specific: who will benefit from the program.

• Activities, Outcomes, and Timeline
  • Describe the activities to be performed to meet the stated objectives. Discuss who will perform these activities.
  • Discuss the expected outcomes.
  • Include a timetable.
  • Identify implementation challenges and limitations you might encounter. Describe how you plan to address those challenges and limitations.
PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

PROJECT DESCRIPTION/NARRATIVE

• Key Personnel and Facilities
  • Describe in detail the qualifications of key project personnel and the facilities available (or promised) for carrying out the project.

• Evaluation plan
  • State plans to evaluate the success of the project.
  • Indicate who will conduct the evaluation and what will be done with the results.
PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

DISSEMINATION PLAN

• Describe how results from this project will be communicated to stakeholders and the public.
• Discuss how the outcomes can be used to inform other Cooperative Extension offices in the State and at the regional level.

SUSTAINABILITY PLAN

• Describe plans for long-term success of the program after the external fund is discontinued.
• Describe what will be done to ensure support.
• Include the main project sustainability activities in the timetable.
• Ways to approach sustainability: apply for funding, dissemination, creating products (publications, factsheet, etc), partnering with industry
PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

REFERENCES

• Reference citations are required for any statement in your proposal, which is not of common knowledge and needs information on the source of the statement.
• Reviewer should be able to find the source, given the information you provide.

BUDGET

• Consider all the expenses to carry out the project: salaries and benefits, supplies, travel, consultants, publication costs, indirect costs, etc.
• Every item in the budget must be justified in the proposal.
• Include detailed budget justification.
PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

RESUME/BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

• Make sure they indicate expertise related to the proposed project. Some funding agencies have a specific format and may specify a page limitation or request that only.
• Relevant publications should be included. If no guidelines are mentioned, keep the resume short, two to five pages.

OTHER DOCUMENTS/APPENDICES/ATTACHMENTS

• Facilities and equipment
• Letters of Support
• Letters of commitment
PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT

TIPS ON GRANT WRITING

• Start early in the preparation of your proposal.
• Write simply, use strong, declarative words: identify, use, test, establish, conduct, etc.
• Avoid jargon and define acronyms.
• Align your project goal and objectives with RFA/RFP purpose and goal.
• Align budget with work plan.
• Have an external reviewer that doesn’t know about your project to give you honest feedback.
• Proposal must be easy to read and evaluate by non-experts. Ensure there is a heading or sub-heading for every evaluation criterion. Use bullet points, and graphics.
